Ingredients

350g dried butter beans, soaked overnight in cold water

4 tbsp olive oil

2 onions, chopped

4 garlic cloves, finely chopped

1-2 red chillies, deseeded and finely chopped

700g jar passata

1 bouquet garni

425ml white wine

425ml vegetable stock

700g squash, peeled, deseeded and cut into chunks

For the crumble

50g breadcrumbs

25g walnuts, finely chopped

1 tbsp chopped rosemary

Method

1. Rinse the beans and put in a large pan with plenty of water to cover. Bring to the boil, reduce the heat and cook, partly covered, for about 1 hr until tender. Drain well.

2. Heat 2 tbsp oil in a large pan, add the onions, fry for 10 mins until lightly browned. Add the garlic, chilli, passata, bouquet garni, wine, stock, salt and pepper; bring to the boil. Reduce the heat and simmer, uncovered, for 20 mins, then add the squash and cook for a further 20 mins. Taste and add more seasoning, if necessary.

3. Heat oven to 180C/fan 160C/gas 4. Stir the beans into the sauce, then transfer to a 2.5-litre gratin dish or two smaller ones. Mix together all the crumble ingredients, plus the remaining 2 tbsp oil, then sprinkle over the beans. Bake for 30 mins until the

4 tbsp chopped
parsley

topping is golden and crisp.

Tip

Know how

Sachets of bouquet garni can be found in the supermarket, but you can easily make your own: tie together a couple of bay leaves and a small bunch each of rosemary and thyme with some fine string.

Tip

Freezing

Freeze the crumble in the dish before the final baking. Defrost overnight in the fridge, then bake as above.
